

Press Release

HILLARY CLINTON NURSING SCHOOL SCORES 100% RESULT

New Delhi, 04/06/2016: In pursuit of excellence, the first batch students of GNM (General Nursing & Midwifery) course of Hillary Clinton Nursing School achieved cent percent result in their final examination. The school was established by Vinod Gupta Charitable Foundation in the year 2012 with a noble cause to empower under privileged students in rural India.

Significantly, these students from the remote areas of the country succeeded with flying colours by scoring an average mark of more than 60% in the said exam. Ms Sonam Rani of Saharanpur stood first, while Mr Gaurav Kasyap came second amongst the students. Besides GNM course, the school is also providing courses on ANM (Auxiliary Nurse & Midwives) a two years course and Baby Nursing a six month certificate course in a holistic campus under supervision of trained and well qualified faculties.

In a short span of time, The Hillary Clinton Nursing School has attained remarkable name and fame across the country. Here, students from different parts of the country can be found in a joyful co-existence with local students.

The school is a part of Ramrati Education Complex, situated at Rampur Maniharan in Saharanpur District of Uttar Pradesh, along with other institutions like, Bill Clinton School, Ramrati Institute of Technology.

On this occasion, the Chairman of Vinod Gupta Charitable Foundation, Mr Ashutosh Dayal Sharma congratulated students, teachers and staffs of the school for this glorious achievement. "A decade of endless efforts of the Foundation has resulted in setting up such standards. Hillary Clinton Nursing School is aimed at providing excellence in teaching, research and leadership in the field of nursing."

Describing the result as a noteworthy success, the President of the complex, Ms Raj Kamal Saxena said, "Here in Ramrati Education Complex, we always strive for all-round development of the students and give stress on their skill development in order to secure their future life."

About Vinod Gupta Charitable Foundation:

Vinod Gupta Charitable Foundation, in short VGCF, is an amalgam of devoted hands and strong minds for imparting outstanding quality education to the next generation. The overarching aim of the foundation is to empower youths of marginalised group through sustainable initiatives in the field of education, which will enable them to be economically and socially secure. It was started as a society under the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1960 in Delhi on 4th July, 1997. The foundation is premier in introducing non-technical education in IITs. Many educational institutions were established and run through charity activities of the foundation. When Ramrati Education Complex at Rampur Maniharan in Saharanpur Dist is run by the foundation itself, Vinod Gupta School of Management and Rajiv Gandhi School of Intellectual Property Law in IIT, Kharagpur, and Dr Giri Lal Gupta School for Public Health and Dr Shanker Dayal Sharma Institute of Democracy inside the campus of Lucknow University were set up by the foundation and subsequently handed over to the respective parent institutes. The foundation is named after its founder Mr Vinod Gupta, an NRI and now a well established entrepreneur in United States of America. He was born on 4th July, 1946 in Saharanpur, UP and after completion of his B tech from IIT, Kharagpur, he left for America to pursue his higher education and then permanently settled over there. The Board of Governors of the foundation is comprised of eminent personalities of India like, Mr Ashutosh Dayal Sharma Chairman, Quest Ventures Pvt Ltd and son of former President of India Dr Shanker Dayal Sharma as its Chairman and Mr BK Goswami, Retd IAS and former advisor to Govt of UP and J&K as Chairman Emeritus including other dignitaries from different walks of life.